AMAR SANDHU Who is that?

I'm Amar Sandhu, born and raised in the USA, making the most amazing Urban Punjabi music around. You may be familiar with my music and if you've ever caught a live show, you know how I keep the crowd going. I strive to make music that's unlike any other, which has earned me the most amazing fans all across the world. I really could not do this without my fans, so thank you to each and every one.

Thus far, I've performed for thousands and headlined a few shows around the globe. When I hit the stage, my goal is to make sure the audience feels my energy and sings along with me. The most amazing feeling is interacting with the fans that know my lyrics by heart, it's really unexplainable. This connection with my fans fuels my creative ambition, and I hope to continue pushing boundaries, bridging cultural divides with my music for the years coming.
